

Venue Rental FAQ

Do you provide in-house catering?

We do not offer in-house catering however we can make recommendations from the restaurants in the local area.

Can I serve alcohol at the venue?

Provided that you have obtained the proper license, it is possible to serve alcohol at the Chinatown Storytelling Centre. Because our facility is not a licensed venue, you would be responsible for obtaining a Special Events Permit (liquor license or SEL). More information can be found here: Apply for a Special Event Permit

How late can my event end?

We offer venue rental times from 9:00 AM to 11:00 PM on Tuesday and Wednesday. For Thursday through Monday, our rental hours are from 5:30 PM to 11:00 PM. If you wish to extend your event beyond these specified hours, please contact us to discuss your requirements in further detail.

What are the deposit and final payment requirements?

At time of contract, a non-refundable deposit of 50 percent of your total rental costs will be due. Final payment will be taken no later than within seven (7) days of the event and will be fully non-refundable once taken.

Can we shop at Foo Hung Curios during our event?

Yes, we are able to accommodate but there is an additional charge due to operation costs for the gift shop to be open for attendees.
